Huber, Casimiro Join ATCO's Investment Division

By John Jordan

NEW YORK CITY—Huber previously was an acquisitions associate at the firm while Casimiro has joined ATCO after serving as VP of acquisitions for TRX Investments.

NEW YORK CITY—ATCO Properties & Management has expanded its investment division with the promotion of Ryan Huber and the appointment of Joao Casimiro each to VP of acquisitions.

Huber and Casimiro will be responsible for sourcing and closing new transactions for ATCO's national commercial real estate portfolio, focusing on value-add retail, office and mixed-use properties in New York City and downtowns in other US secondary markets. Huber and Casimiro will work alongside ATCO's acquisitions team led by co-president Damon Hemmerdinger and SVP of finance and acquisitions Neil Adamson.

“We are proud to elevate Ryan within the company and welcome Joao to our team as we strategically grow our investment platform,” Adamson says. “They will play a key role as we continue to identify opportunities to create value for our partners in great live-work-play locations across the United States.”

Ryan Huber

Huber joined ATCO in January 2013 as an acquisitions associate. He has focused on acquisitions for the company’s sponsor capital fund, an investment program that enables family office investors to join ATCO in its acquisition of central business district office buildings and retail properties in key markets such as Austin, TX; Nashville, TN and Charlotte, NC and other growing cities. Prior to ATCO, he was a senior analyst at Wells Hill Partners, Ltd. Huber is a graduate of Fordham University where he studied finance and mathematics, and New York University, where he earned a Masters Degree in real estate finance.

Casimiro comes to ATCO after having served as VP of acquisitions for TRX Investments in Miami leading all aspects of the acquisition process for the firm, including sourcing, due diligence, financial analysis, structuring, capital markets and budgeting.

Previously, he worked as an acquisitions associate at ARC Capital Partners in Los Angeles. Casimiro graduated from Instituto Superior Tecnico with a Licenciatura in Civil Engineering and from the UCLA Anderson School of Management with an M.B.A. in real estate and finance.
